Scrap Gold Sale Form

- The value of your gold (and also the gold itself) can also be put towards the creation of a custom piece if desired.
- Once gold has been purchased it will be either sent out for refining or melted into ingots for reuse and the pieces will not be able to be returned.
- You are free to decline the sale if you are not satisfied with the amount we offer based on current rates.
- Payment accepted in the form of store credit can not be exchanged for cash payout at a later date. Cash/e-transfer is offered at the time of sale only.

I agree to the policies outlined above and would like to proceed with the sale of my scrap gold to OPAL for 65% of the current market rate on today's date. I understand this transaction is non-refundable and gold can not be returned once it has been processed.
